Time Travel

Can I go back in time and change my past?

Start from being in the uterus

Can I alter my identity?

Shall I be reborn and re-live my life?

Correcting the past mistakes

Can I live a better life?

Whenever diverging paths occurred

I chose the wrong. Through my fault,

I repent, but it's not undone.

My fallacious selections

Put others and me in deep trouble

Through my fault, Oh God! Let me amend it.

Can this be maturity or absurdity?

I feel my life as my most grievous fault

If only I could time travel and correct it!!

I don't regret, for I know I would only make
New mistakes, even if I start afresh; so the question is Embracing new mistakes or the old?
